L1. CITATION, Council President Gomes honoring SAMANTHA C. JOHNSON, New Bedford's Own, in recognition of her two star-studded musical appearances on the 2015 America's Got Talent Competition.

L2. COMMUNICATION/DEMOLITION New Bedford Historical Commission, to City Council, re: PARTIAL DEMOLITION, 597 – 603 BROCK AVENUE, HAZELWOOD PARK, circa 1854 Coffin-Howland House: "the circa 1854 Coffin-Howland Houses is a distinctive example of the Gothic Revival style of American domestic architecture; the structure was initially built as a barn by Joseph Congdon on the rural estate he called Hazelwood; the structure is in a deteriorated condition has suffered from an arson fire and repeated vandalism, and is a threat to the public welfare; the structure has deteriorated to the point of collapse and is beyond reasonable repair and based upon public comments the City will reach out to the neighbors and greater community to determine their thoughts on the potential consideration of demolition of the entire building" and therefore, "the NBHC has determined that the Coffin-Howland House is historically significant structure but not preferably preserved."

L3. WRITTEN MOTION, Council President Gomes, requesting that the Police Chief increase patrols, along with the Gang and Narcotics Units in the area of Acushnet Avenue and Grinnell Street, west to Pleasant Street; Pleasant Street, north to Wing Street due to the increasing amount of criminal activity in the area; and further, that regular patrol units in the area enforce the scooter laws along with traffic and speed limit laws in the area of Pleasant Street, north of County Street, giving residents relief from the quality of life issues in this area.

L4. WRITTEN MOTION, Council President Gomes, requesting that the Director of Parks, Recreation and Beaches, Mary Rapoza, look into installing Expression swings in parks throughout the City, the recreational swings allow parents and infants or young children to swing together face-to-face in one unit; and further, that we look at Community Development monies to assist in this project.
