WHEREAS, Having proven herself to be capable, loyal and effective in her duties, Donna was promoted to full City Council Secretary, a position in which she continued to demonstrate her intelligence, strong work ethic, capabilities and strong commitment to the Council and the City until April of 2004, at which time she was asked to accept a promotion to Assistant Clerk of Committees, a position in which she would single-handedly be responsible for all operations and responsibilities of the Clerk of Committees' Office, which, in addition to her daily work, now included attending and reporting on all City Council Committee Meetings, in this role, Donna took advantage of yet another opportunity to shine as she quickly had the Office operating at a high level of efficiency and performance; and

WHEREAS, In 2006, the City Council finally received funding in its budget to bring the Clerk of Committees' Office back to its full staffing complement, which now included a full-time Office Assistant Clerk to assist Donna with the daily administrative duties of the Office and a part-time Clerk of Committees to attend and report on City Council Committee Meetings; and

WHEREAS, Donna will be entering into a new and exciting phase of life, having more time and freedom to immerse herself in the things that truly matter to her: her Faith and her Family, she will undoubtedly continue to be a loving wife, supportive mother and a doting grandmother while at the same time pursuing the ministry that God has laid upon her heart as a Deaconess at In the Name of Jesus Church; and

WHEREAS, On January 7, 2023, Assistant Clerk of Committees Donna M. Britto, a kind and sensitive woman of faith, love and integrity, having so much to be proud of both personally and professionally, is retiring after an incredible 32-year career of outstanding service to the City of New Bedford; and it is with bitter-sweet feelings of both sadness and joy – but certainly with the utmost respect and admiration - that her loving family, colleagues, fellow City employees and elected officials join together to wish Donna a very long, happy and healthy retirement:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the New Bedford City Council hereby sincerely thanks and honors DONNA M. BRITTO, ASSISTANT CLERK OF COMMITTEES, ON THE OCCASION OF HER RETIREMENT AFTER 32 YEARS OF SERVICE TO THE CITY OF NEW BEDFORD AND THE CITY COUNCIL, commends her for her exemplary career as an employee of the City of New Bedford and thanks her for the professionalism, dedication and passion with which she served the City Council and its constituents; and further, BE IT RESOLVED, that the New Bedford City Council extends its warmest and most sincere wishes to DONNA M.
