New Bedford Free Public Library to Host First in Series of Local Author Presentations

New Bedford, Massachusetts – The New Bedford Free Public Library will host a program with Dave Kane, WBSM radio personality and author of 41 Signs of Hope, on Tuesday, September 15th at 7:00 p.m. at the Main Library in the 3rd floor meeting room.

Mr. Kane is the father of Nicholas O’Neill, the youngest victim of the fourth largest nightclub fire in U.S. history and in 41 Signs of Hope, he shares fascinating stories and intriguing evidence that life never ends. After receiving a barrage of signs, including vocal messages from his son, Mr. Kane is convinced that he has not “lost” Nicholas. Rather, he has been given the priceless gift of a loving eternal connection with his boy. After experiencing Mr. Kane’s uplifting presentation, you too will be assured that your loved ones who have passed are still with you.

Library Director Olivia Mello said, “This program is sure to be entertaining, informative and truly inspirational. It is the first in a series of local author presentations the New Bedford Library will host throughout the fall and winter.” Mr. Kane will donate copies of his book to all five New Bedford library branches.

This is a FREE program sponsored by the New Bedford Public Library and is open to all ages. For more information, contact Library Director, Olivia Melo at 508-961-3044 or omelo@sailsinc.org.
